And Then There Were None

Directed by Maria Petrella-Ackley

"And Then There Were None" is a mystery play adapted from Agatha Christie's best-selling novel. The story is set on a remote island where ten strangers are invited under different pretexts. Once they arrive, they discover that their unseen host accuses each of them of murder. One by one, the guests are killed in a mysterious manner. As their numbers dwindle, the survivors must figure out who among them is the killer before it's too late. Don't miss this play full of suspense, intricate plotting, and surprise ending.
